This report was prepared under the coordination of the Agriculture Research Institute of Mozambique (IIAM) in the capacity of the designed National Focal for the Cartagena Protocol on Biosafety. The preparation process included the distribution (via email) of the forms with explanatory note on the questionnaire to the members of the Biosafety Inter-Institutional Group (GIIBS) so that they could fill them out and returned them to the coordinator of the report. Then, the report coordinator compiled the receive information and produced a draft that was sent again to the members of GIIBS for comments and suggestions. After the incorporation of comments and suggestion a final version of the document was produced.
