

Arrival of the HE The President of the Republic of Rwanda at WED2010-Kwita Izina Ceremony

Arrival of the UNEP Executive Director in traditional dress at WED2010-Kwita Izina Ceremony

Some of the selected people who will name newborn baby gorillas at WED2010-Kwita Izina Ceremony

Arrival of international guests at WED2010-Kwita Izina Ceremony

Huge participation of local community at WED2010-Kwita Izina Ceremony

“Gorillas” (people in fancy gorilla dress) waiting to be named at WED2010-Kwita Izina Ceremony

Guest cheering "gorillas" at WED2010-Kwita Izina Ceremony

Selected guests heading to the podium for naming ceremony at WED2010-Kwita Izina Ceremony

Selected people naming newborn gorillas at WED2010-Kwita Izina Ceremony

Entertainment with local famous singers and dancers at WED2010-Kwita Izina Ceremony

Cultural dances at WED2010-Kwita Izina Ceremony

The traditional party called "Igitaramo" whereby different cultural dances are performed by local community members and guests

Sports as part of raising awareness on biodiversity conservation

Executive Secretary of CBD and Rwandan Minister of Environment and Lands at Kigali International Conference on Environment and Conservation focusing on International Year of Biodiversity

Planting trees to protect buffer zone of Nyandungu wetland during WED2010-Kwita Izina Community work (Umuganda)

HE receiving Honorary Energy Globe Award for the promotion of green economy in Rwanda at Kwita Izina Ceremony

HE The President acknowledging the WED 2010 Theme in his speech at Kwita Izina Ceremony : “We have dedicated almost 10% of our territory to the conservation of our biodiversity and we continue to sensitize our people so that they understand that, indeed, we have one future as far as this planet is concerned.”

Speech of Hollywood Actor Don Cheadle