

Activities to commemorate the 2010 International Year of Biodiversity in the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia

Lead Agency: Saudi Wildlife Commission (SWC)

Activities Implemented:

Events	Agency / Audience	Dates
Biodiversity Campaign	University of Tiba, Medina	April 2010
Role of Women in conserving environment and wildlife	Taif	May 2010
Environment Education Programme	Female employees of the Riyadh municipalities	March-April 2010
Environment Education Programme	Female employees of the National Museum	April – May 2010
Environment Education for Teachers & Educational Supervisors	Teachers and Educational Supervisors of the Eastern Province	April 2010
Combating Invasive Plants	Rangers and officials at the Farasan Island Protected Area	April 2010
Lecture on the “Biodiversity of Saudi Arabia”	College of Teachers, King Saud University	May 2010
Radio Programme in Arabic –“The Importance of Biodiversity and threats affecting its loss”	Special Programme on “Good Morning Saudi Arabia” Radio Broadcast	May 2010
TV Programme in English –“The Importance of Biodiversity and threats affecting its loss”	Special Episode on “Good Morning Saudi Arabia” TV Series	May 2010
Environment Education Programme	Female students of the University of Princess Noura	May – June 2010
Competition to spread awareness on Wildlife and Biodiversity	University of Imam Mohammed Bin Saud	May – June 2010
Competition to spread awareness on Wildlife and Biodiversity	University of Dar Al-Olum	May – June 2010
Article on Biodiversity	Published in the Journal of the Saudi Biological Society	July 2010
Special Issue of the “Al-Wudaihi” magazine on the occasion of IYB	General Public	October 2010