

Environment celebration by a The Youth Club of Al Muharraq and the TUNZA youth NGO that was labeled: "Our Life is More beautiful with biodiversity". A bicycle race and exhibition for biodiversity related research and activities by universities and NGOs as well as plants and animals exhibition was displayed to share with the public. UNEP-ROWA gave an opening statement that highlighted the importance of biodiversity to human well being and the significance of human activities on loss of species.

