

“Moulvibazar Biodiversity Conservation Day 2010” on 27-28 January, 2010

Moulvibazar, a district lying north-eastern corner of Bangladesh, and famous for having the largest natural waterfall and most of the tea-gardens of the country, mixed-evergreen reserve forest, spectacular haors (bowl shaped closed water body) that include Hakaluki (the largest of its kind in Asia) Haor, ethnic cultures of Monipuri, Khasia and Tipra; has recently celebrated “Moulvibazar Biodiversity Conservation Day 2010” on 27-28 January, 2010. The District Administration of Moulvibazar has organized the following programs for its two day awareness building campaign for conserving biodiversity of the district.

Date / Time	Program	Venue	Participants	Organized by
27/1/2010	Essay Competition on : 'Significance of Biodiversity'	Shaheed Minar premise, Court Road, Moulvibazar	High school students of class VI-VIII	District Administration, District Education Office, Moulvibazar.
	Painting Competition: 'Each in its habitat'	Shaheed Minar premise, Court Road, Moulvibazar	School students of Class III: 'Birds in the sky'; Class IV: 'Animals in the forest' Class V: 'Fishes in the water'	District Administration, District Primary Education Office, Moulvibazar.
	Photo and film show on: 'Biodiversity is our life' theme	Shaheed Minar premise, Court Road, Moulvibazar	Open for all	District Administration, District Information Office, Moulvibazar.
28/1/2010	Human chain formation against 'Destruction of Lawachhora Reserve Forest'	Sreemongol Upazila, Komolgonj Upazila, Moulvibazar	Govt, Semi-govt, autonomous organizations, NGOs, school and college students, journalists	Upazila Administration of Sreemongol and Komolgonj.
	Human chain formation against 'Destruction of wetland habitats and migratory bird poaching'	Borolekha Upazila, Moulvibazar	Do	Upazila Administration of Borolekha.
	Human chain formation against 'Illegal cutting of hills'.	Kulaura Upazila, Moulvibazar	Do	Upazila Administration of Kulaura.
	Human chain formation against destruction of biodiversity.	Central Road, Moulvibazar Sadar, Moulvibazar	Do	District Administration, Moulvibazar.
	Procession / rally with colorful masks imitating different animal species.	Choumohona-Govt. College Auditorium, Moulvibazar	Do	District Administration, Moulvibazar.
	Discussion on 'significance of biodiversity'	Govt. College Auditorium, Moulvibazar	Do	District Administration, Moulvibazar.
	Oath taking for conserving our soil, water, plant, insect, animal species.	Govt. College Auditorium, Moulvibazar	Do	District Administration, Moulvibazar.
	Cultural program (group song, drama depicting importance of community participation for biodiversity conservation.	Govt. College Auditorium, Moulvibazar	Do	District Administration, Moulvibazar.

Also, a facebook group named "Moulvibazar Biodiversity Conservation" has been formed recently.

Sent by:

Md. Taufiqul Islam

Nejarat Deputy Collector & organizer of the campaign

Office of the Deputy Commissioner

Moulvibazar.

Phone: +88-0861-53072 (Office); +88-0861-52606 (Res); +88-01710907874 (Mobile)

Web: www.dcmoulvibazar.gov.bd