The native Mozambican Stella Mendonça studied voice und music history at the «Conservatoire National d'Art Dramatique» in Paris and Lyon.

In 2002 Stella produced "Carmen" (Bizet), the first opera in the history of Mozambique in which she also was performing the main role as Carmen.

As from 2003, Stella was focussing on recitals with Italian belcanto repertoire and oratorios in the USA, Europe and Africa.

Today, Stella also is working on many cultural projects in Southern Africa, promoting young talents bridging north and south.

Paul Suits

Paul Suits, born in California, studied piano at the Mannes College of Music in New York City. Suits has concertized in the Far East, Russia, Canada, and throughout Europe and the United States. He held positions at the opera houses in Basle and Lucerne, Switzerland and the Musikhochschulen in Basle and Zürich.

In addition to his activities as pianist, Paul Suits has composed numerous operas, choral works, and songs.

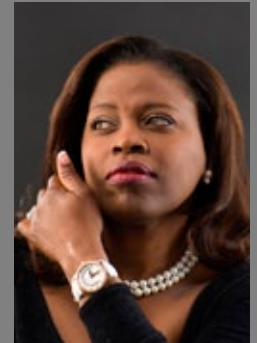

All proceeds will be donated to GORONGOSA NATIONAL PARK in Mozambique in support of the project „Building a School, Building a Future“.
