

Bird Festival

Come home to one of the longest systems of continuous wetlands in North America. Over 265 species of birds have been recorded in a 150 km stretch of the Columbia Valley Wetlands. Flanked by grasslands, forest, alpine meadows and rocky crags this "Serengeti of the North" supports abundant wildlife and provides spectacular vistas for the eleventh annual Wings Over the Rockies Bird Festival.

Choose from over 50, high quality, creative and educational events for the whole family. Discover the world of birds through activities such as guided nature walks, Columbia River floats, voyageur canoe trips, horseback riding in the grasslands, art exhibits, evening presentations, workshops, children's festival, Wings gala banquet, birdathon and much more!

Walk in the wilderness with experts to see osprey, eagles and lots of waterfowl. Float on the river or visit the national and provincial parks within a World Heritage Site while participating in British Columbia's longest bird festival.
